

Jody Harris

Social Security Consultant

Jody Harris is an independent third-party consultant to Protective Life in the area of Social Security. Protective Life refers to Protective Life Insurance Company and its affiliates, including Protective Life & Annuity Insurance Company. Insurance products are issued by Protective Life Insurance Company in all states except New York and in New York by Protective Life & Annuity Insurance Company.

Jody Harris worked for the Social Security Administration for over 34 years, ten of those years serving as a Public Relations Officer. He has held staff-member positions to both the Commissioner of the SSA and a United States Senator. At the time of his retirement, Jody's title was Public Affairs Specialist of Alabama, which saw him responsible for all SSA education and outreach programs within the state.

For his outreach work, Jody received the prestigious Deputy Commissioner's Award, the second highest accolade within the Social Security Administration. One year earlier in 2001, Jody was the recipient of the Associate Commissioner's Award for his part on starting the Social Security internet claims process that is currently still in use.

In his current role as a Social Security Consultant, Jody utilizes his extensive experience within the financial community to educate advisors on what to expect from Social Security, how to obtain benefits, and identify sales opportunities within retirement income planning.
